

SATURDAY NOVEMBER 26. 1743.

Rome, November 9.

SOME Persons of Distinction that were sent by this Court to the Camp of Prince Lobkowitz, in order to enquire into the Truth of some Reports, as if the Austrian Forces had committed great Disorders in the Ecclesiastical State, are return'd with a very satisfactory Detail of that Matter.

They report, that Prince Lobkowitz receives every Body with the utmost Politeness; and treats them, at the same time, with all the Frankness of a German. Count Saffelli, who is in the King of Spain's Service, and the Prince of Oiverano, attempted to pass through his Camp incognito, but were discovered, and carried to his Highness, who treated them with great Civility, and ordered them to be escorted in their Journey to Venice by a Detachment of German Dragoons. The 4th of the Month being the Feast of St. Charles Borromeo, and the Name-Day of the Emperor, Cardinal Borghese received the Compliments of all the Foreign Ministers sitting here, upon that Occasion; and in the Evening there were great Rejoicings at his Palace, and that of the Cardinal de Sforza, the Imperial Minister at this Court.

Naples, November 5. Our last Letters from Messina Date of the 22d of last Month, and are not very satisfactory. By them we learn, that two Persons, who were thought to be perfectly recovered of the Plague, relapsed, and that one died suddenly. Those from Reggio of the same Date, say, that from the 15th to 21st there had died 84 Persons, the greatest Part of the Plague; and that 199 were now in the Hospital, from whence 388 had been discharged, perfectly cured. The Letters from the Villages in the Neighbourhood are still less favourable; yet we have thought convenient to renew our Communication with the Ecclesiastical State, though it is much to be questioned whether the Government of Rome will agree to it on this Side. Count de Gages wrote, not long ago, to our Court, in order to try whether he might depend upon a Asylum in our Dominions, but received a flat Negative; to enforce which, a considerable Body of Infantry have been sent to the Frontiers of the Kingdom, in order to repel the Spaniards by Force. Prince Lobkowitz has sent to the Spanish Army, in order to set them right as to the Conduct of General O'Donnel, Irish Officer, who was accused of not doing his Duty. In Case, it seems, was this. A Party of German Hussars came up with them, and returning their Pistols into their Holders, cried out, they had his Highness's Orders to fire, but to favour their going off, in case they refused to desert; upon which, a third Part of O'Donnel's Men threw themselves behind the Hussars, which ordered them to draw off so precipitately with the rest, having not had either Money, or Provisions, regular for some Months, were pretty much in the Humour to follow their Example.

Rome, November 9. The Commander Solari, who was Majesty's Ambassador to the Court of France, is lately arrived here; and has given his Majesty an Account of the Disposition in which he left the Ministers at Versailles. He likewise acquainted the King, that he had it from his Hands, that the Spanish Army in Savoy did not consist of above 15,000 Men. Three hundred Spanish Officers, who lately arrived here, have been sent to Sicily, in order to embark there for Sardinia; where they are to be incorporated into the Regiment of Sicily.

Rome, November 16. Thirty Vessels laden with Ammunition, and all Sorts of Ammunition, arrived here within a few Days from Bavaria, and have been laid up in the Queen's Magazine. According to our last Advice from Petersburg, Things are not like to take such a turn there as malicious People have represented; on the contrary, the Czarina has caused it to be notified to the Court, that she is determined to fulfil punctually all her Engagements; upon which Orders have been sent to Lieutenant Field-Marshal Count de Bernes, who is appointed Ambassador Extraordinary to that Court, to be ready to set out in a Fortnight at farthest. Our Letters from Prague say, that besides the Recruits from the Kingdom of Bohemia is to furnish for the Emperor's Armies, Ways and Means will be found to fix a Fund for the Maintenance of a regular Militia, as effectually secure that Country against any sudden Invasions.

Paris, November 28. It is said, that his most Christian Majesty has declared, that the Troops which lately crossed the Rhine were to be consider'd as his own Forces sitting in his own Quarrel, and not as Auxiliaries to his Imperial Majesty. It is conjectured here, that notwithstanding the Pretence of the Marquis de St. Gilles's visiting Lord Carteret about the Exchange of Prisoners only, that a Peace is as good as concluded between the Courts of Madrid and London; and there are some People here who pretend to know, that in Virtue of this Peace, all Difficulties about the English Navigation in the West-Indies will be removed. The Hungarian Minister, Baron Palm, instead of going to Russia, will be sent with an important Commission to several German Courts; and his Success therein will determine the Operations of next Year.

The Boy is now recovering, but the Woman's Life is despair'd of.

As it has been found by Experience, that the Examining during the Hours of drawing the Lottery is so great an Interruption, as to hinder the Correctness that ought to be in a Numerical Book, therefore those who enquire for their Friends in the Country, or themselves, are desired to call after Three o'Clock at Lowe and Barry's Office in Stationer's Alley, Ludgate-street; who have taken all possible Care to prevent any Interruption to their posting the Numbers, therefore they may be depended on with the greatest Certainty. And to prevent the Town being imposed on by unknown People with Counterfeit Tickets, or Banks, they will warrant all those bought of them, to be undrawn and good Tickets, with their own Hands. Shares are sold, and Chances, in the same manner, with the greatest Security. No. 79,320 drawn last Monday a Prize of 2000 l. was sold the same Morning at this Office.
